Letter No. 1-0 & 0 (58)/52, dated the 19th June 1952, from the Chief Controller of Exports (Ministry of Commerce and Industry), Government of India, New Delhi, addressed to the Joint Chief Controller of Exports, Bombay/Calcutta, etc., and the copy of the same to all concerned (as usual).

Subject.—Export of Mustard Oil.

It has been decided that exports of mustard oil may be licensed freely, without any quantitive restrictions, to all permissible destinations including Pakistan, up to the end of September 1952. Licences may be issued by means of endorsements on shipping bills and the validity of the shipping bills should not extend beyond the 30th September 1952. In your trade notice you may warn the exporters that they should not, on the strength of your notice, enter into any commitment for export which they are not in a position to fulfil before the end of September 1952.

2. Statements showing the quantities of mustard oil passed for shipment may be forwarded to this office every fortnight. The statement should indicate the name of shipper, the quantity passed for shipment and the destination.
